EXECUTIVE EDUCATION Annual Financial Times Ranking:

ESSEC No.13 in the world and No.1 for 'open' programs in France

For the third year running, ESSEC's program offering for business managers and executives has moved up in the prestigious Financial Times ranking, which identifies the 45 best business schools for Executive Education worldwide.

Of all the institutions included in 2009, ESSEC's rise in the ranking marks the biggest improvement.

ESSEC Business School is ranked 13th in the world for Executive Education:

- Open enrolment programs : No.1 in France, No.5 in Europe, No.16 in the world.
- Customized programs: No.6 in Europe, No.15 in the world.

The FT Executive Education ranking, compiled using data from surveys completed by client companies and individual program participants, puts ESSEC at No.2 in the world for the criteria "follow-up" and No.5 in the world for "new skills and learning".

ESSEC's performance in the ranking reflects the quality of the Executive Education programs and the satisfaction of its clients.
