

EPSCI retains its reputation for quality and selectivity in the SESAME 2009

Cergy, France
7th October 2009

Following the 2009 SESAME entrance exams, EPSCI is pleased to announce that it has admitted over half of those who were offered places.

EPSCI, an international Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) that is part of the ESSEC Group, retains its position as the most attractive and selective school of the seven institutions in the SESAME category.

- 4434 candidates applied
- 771 places were offered
- 458 places were accepted
- 213 students or 83% of those admitted received honors in their baccalaureate: 9 % received a "Mention Très bien", 32 % a "Mention Bien", 42 % a "Mention Assez Bien".

These figures reinforce EPSCI's excellent academic reputation amongst top-quality students and reflect the school's positioning in the ESSEC Group, its international exposure and strong ties with the business community.

* SESAME: Entrance exams to 7 post-baccalaureate schools: Cesem Reims, CeseMed, EBP International, EM Normandy, EPSCI (ESSEC Group) ESCE, IFI BSc International Business.

* BBA: Bachelor in Business Administration, an undergraduate university degree lasting 4 years, reflecting an internationally accepted standard, particularly in the USA, Australia, the UK, Latin America, China and India.
