

Conference with Jean-Philippe Courtois, President, Microsoft International, Senior Vice-President, Microsoft Corporation

On Tuesday 19th February at 4.30pm, Jean-Philippe Courtois, President, Microsoft International and Senior Vice President, Microsoft Corporation, will be appearing at a conference on the theme of "Running an international Business at Microsoft" at ESSEC's Cergy Campus.

He will begin his address with a presentation of his professional track record, his beginnings at Microsoft and his role within the Group as President of Microsoft International, a position that involves responsibility for all Microsoft subsidiaries across the world (outside of the United States). He will then go on to explain the methodology that he employs for steering the Group's various subsidiaries and strategy and offering value guarantees to the company's stakeholders.

Roselyne Bachelot-Narquin, French Minister for Health, Youth Affairs and Sport, guest of "Les Amphis de la Santé"

Organized jointly by the Association des Cadres de l'Industrie Pharmaceutique, the Quotidien du Médecin and The ESSEC Health Economics Chair, "Les Amphis de la Santé" will have the pleasure of receiving Roselyne BACHELOT as their special guest. The debate "Quelles proximités pour notre système de Soins ?" will be held on Tuesday 4th March, at 8.30 am at the ESSEC Management Education campus, the CNIT (La Défense).
