

Job Position: FACULTY POSITION AT THE ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE LEVELS IN OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

The ESSEC Operations Management Department invites applications for the position of Assistant / Associate Professor of Operations Management starting Fall 2010. Candidates should complete their Ph.D or Dotorate in the area by August 2010 and possess outstanding research and teaching qualifications. Candidates for associate should have a substantial scholarly research record as evidenced by publication in top-tier journals.

Preference will be given to candidates with broad abilities in Operations Management as well as strong interest and/or track records in Green Operations or New Product Development. The salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications.

ESSEC Business School is one of the major European business schools located in France. It was the first AACSB accredited institution outside the United States and Canada, and is also EQUIS accredited.

ESSEC Business School is located on three campuses: CERGY (near Paris) LA DEFENSE (the business district in Paris), and SINGAPORE, and offers undergraduate and graduate education to more than 4200 students: EPSCI, ESSEC-MBA, a large set of several specialized Masters, Ph. D. and Executive programs. Course can be taught in English (preferred) or in French. More information on ESSEC can be found at: www.essec.edu.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, a complete vita, sample copies of their research (published or working papers) and three letters of recommendation by March 15, 2010, under reference OMSearch to: rodriguesdasilva@essec.fr