Examination dates

The dates given here are the first and last possible dates for exams for exchange students in December 2010.

You must expect to have exams until the end of the day on Friday 17th December.

Do not make travel arrangements to leave EPSCI on or before December 17.

No special examination arrangements will be made for international students who arrange to leave on or before December 17.

EPSCI Exchange Students enrolled only for the Fall semester, who have signed 4 month contracts at Alegessec, must leave their residence by December 24 at the latest.

But please note that before you leave your room, you must clean it and then carry out a room inspection with the Alegessec staff. The results of this inspection will determine whether the full amount of your security deposit is paid back to you or not.

Room inventories will be done by appointment until December 24.

When making travel arrangements to go home, make sure that you allow time to clean your room and carry out the inspection before leaving.

As Full Year and Double Degree students will keep the same rooms until the end of the second semester, their room inspections will be carried out when they leave in June or July.
